

Model A: decision function sliced along each dimension
(other dimensions held at their test-set mean; histograms show class-conditional data)

